

Paying tribute to the Fallen at the Australian War Memorial

RIGHT: Members of the League pay homage to fallen comrades at the Tomb of The Unknown Soldier at the Australian War Memorial, after the laying of the wreath by Major General Bill Crews, National President, and Lieutenant Colonel John Merrick, former President of the RSL ACT Branch.

LEFT: Members of the League attending the ACT Branch Congress proceed along the Pool of Reflection and Eternal Flame. Surrounding the courtyard is the Roll of Honour, which may be glimpsed through the arched cloisters.

RIGHT: Annette Ellis MP, federal Member for Canberra, at the 2009 wreath-laying ceremony at the El Aleman Memorial, Egypt.
